Date and Time of Auditions: June 8 & 9, 2019 11:00 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

Location: The North Park Recreation Center: 4033 Idaho Street.

About the Program:

For the past 18 years, T3 Triple Threat Youth Mentors (T3) has provided a myriad of arts education, mentoring and enrichment programs both during and after the school day. Our primary objective is to make theatre arts education more accessible financially and socially to kids and teens in San Diego. In a healthy, safe environment students learn to express themselves clearly and creatively through performing arts classes, workshops and theatrical performances. No child is ever turned away based on ability to pay and everyone gets a part.

About the Director/ Founder:

Teaching Artist and entertainer Morie Williams has performed his was across 7 continent and over 150 countries. One of his biggest joys has always been helping young people craft their best performance both on and off stage.

About the Production:

Based on Academy Award-winning animated feature film and Directed by Morie Williams, Nick Hessling and Jason Chase. We are now inviting kids and teens ages 5-17 from of all cultural backgrounds to become part of our Beauty And The Beast family. Whether a casual enthusiast or aspiring professional all are welcome and encouraged to attend. A good attitude and willingness to learn is just as important as experience.
